

Course Aims

The course is designed with practice-based pedagogy showcasing how leadership, planning, policy-making, technology and responsible innovation underpins the management of a modern business. Provides personal transformational learning experience

The course offers a holistic approach to developing knowledge and understanding required to managing a business; exploring how various functions within business are integrated through technology, stakeholders and sustainable practices; evaluating the impact on society at large.

The course will help you develop an appreciation for the dynamic change that is inherent within the business world and prepare for the continuing evolution of working life and associated roles, structures and ways of working; The course will require you to demonstrate an ability to integrate business theory in application and be efficient and effective in a variety of organisational, cultural, and social contexts.

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of your course you should meet the appropriate learning outcomes for your award shown in the table below

Outcome	Award
1 Demonstrate an understanding of modern management practices in a technology dependent and data driven business environment (EDI, Sustainability, Ethics)	BSc (Hons) Business Management with Business Analytics; CertHE Business Management; DipHE Business Management with Business Analytics
2 Analyse business complexity through the application of theories and frameworks in the management of business functions including Marketing, Finance, Operations, HRM, Strategy Design and Decision Making, Information Systems and Technology, and Governance	BSc (Hons) Business Management with Business Analytics; DipHE Business Management with Business Analytics
3 Critically investigate complex and varied situations situation collecting and evaluating information, and sourcing and analysing data in order and learn demonstrate understanding of a range of business problems and propose effective solutions and make

Teaching, learning and assessment strategies

Responsible Management, Equality, Diversity and Inclusion, Wellbeing, and Global issues as follows:

You will engage with various theoretical and practical activities including lectures, seminars, workshops and e-learning and see personal, professional and practical importance of subject areas to the success of businesses.

you will actively engage in working with your peers and tutor in a face to face environment on real life projects, case studies, simulations exploring current trends impacting your profession

The class room and assessment tasks are designed to build and improve your confidence to communicate and share your contribution through working with peers from diverse backgrounds and build experience through simulations, case development feed-forward and feedback provided on assessments will allow you to reflect on your knowledge and skills

Broadly, the first year units develop the skills for reflection, collaboration, digital and numeracy competencies. Individual forms of assessment in the second year include both implicit and explicit reflection on problem-solving skills to allow you to assess your own performance. In the second and third year, tutors support you in the transition to becoming more independent learners, with

You are encouraged from the outset to be aware of the changing nature of the management functions within which business operates. You are expected to keep up to date with information, and events that will affect business practice.

Assessment takes a variety of forms, including reports, portfolios, individual and collaborative tasks (individually assessed), research proposals, poster presentations, and exams. Many of the assessments tend to be focused on employability thus tend to

Most units include elements of individual and group work to reflect the type of work undertaken in business and management. Assessment focuses on tasks that develop vocational skills, underpinned by subject knowledge, requiring higher levels of

Section C: Assessment Plan

The course is assessed as follows :

BSBUFABF- BSc (Hons) Business Management with Foundation Year

Unit Code	Level	Period	Core/Option	Ass 1 Type code	Ass 1 Submit wk	Ass 2 Type code	Ass 2 Submit wk
------------------	--------------	---------------	--------------------	----------------------------	----------------------------	----------------------------	----------------------------

CW-RW	Coursework - Reflective Writing
EX	Exam (Invigilated)
IT-PT	Summative in-class test or phase test
PJ-COL	Coursework - Collaborative Activitiy
PJ-DIS	Coursework - Dissertation Report
PR-OR	Practical - Oral Presentation
WR-I	Coursework - Individual Report
WR-PR	Coursework - Problem Based Report