

The University
of Bedfordshire
wishes you the best for your future!

Well done, you have nearly finished your degree and you are thinking about the future. There is a sense of relief but also satisfaction at having achieved what you set out to accomplish

By now you should be thinking about what you want to do next. You may have a career plan and a job to go to. Some students, however, may have some uncertainties about the future. Maybe you have found it difficult to find work or are unclear about direction

Take advantage of our Careers Service. They offer drop-in appointments, bookable guidance interviews for graduates, online e-guidance and job alerts

Remember an effective CV or job application is one that gets you an interview.
